Report from School Officials

- Mike Freeman reported today is the first day of the 6th – 8th Cougar Classic Basketball tournament. The Kindergarten Shade Structure was completed right before winter break. We have ordered a speed indicator sign for Swasey Drive. SIP day included our own Google Certified Educators training our teachers in Ed Tech, we are 1-1 in 4th and 5th grades and access points have been installed in every classroom. Mr. Freeman wanted to thank PTO for the Secret Santa gifts. The families were appreciative.

Mini-Grant Requests

- Two Cubbies – Mr. Tuggle $327.21 Mr. Freeman reported the District Office will be taking care of this request.
- Skutt Kiln - $1,374.50 Mr. Freeman brought in a request for PTO to purchase half of a new Kiln that will be used school wide for grade level crafts and the art elective. Paula Scott motioned, Elena Paul 2nd – all in favor.

Old Business

- Paula Scott reported there were a total of four families who benefited from the Secret Santa this year. Mr. Freeman delivered the gifts once school was out for winter break.

New Business

- Mrs. Bunton is heading the Talent Show, scheduled for January 27th. She'll come to PTO for reimbursements.
- The Art Fair will be February 3rd and we will need to get help for the set up. We discussed offering pizza for dinner during the fair and possibly offering lunch for the helpers who set up during the day.
- Paula Scott announced this will be her last year in PTO.
